

Simultaneous Fork Positioners

Simultaneous Fork Positioner - Load Protectors for forklifts could help reduce expensive scuffing, marring, scratching and chipping by means of providing a cushioned non-slip surface between the tines and load. These kinds of attachments can be moulded in accordance with OEM specifications from premium polyurethane. It is really fast to mount the Load Protectors since they fit right over the typical lift truck forks making use of mounting hardware.